The Salem Public Market, 1240 Rural St. SE, will celebrate its 30th annual Strawberry Shortcake Festival 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, June 13.

Local music and entertainment will be provided by the Uke-de-dos, songwriter Sig Paulson and Greg Ernst. The Marion County Master Gardeners will be on site answering questions. Marion County Environmental Services will be there also sharing news about their new Save the Food campaign. Plus you can recycle your old plastic plant pots with Agri-plast and check out the Friends of Salem Public Library book sale. This is all in addition to the 20 market vendors.

Bring a nonperishable food item to donate to Marion-Polk Food Share and receive a free strawberry shortcake.
