

Commissioner Danielle Bethell

Danielle Bethell was elected to the Marion County Board of Commissioners in November 2020 and begins her first term January 2021. She is longtime community advocate and volunteer and most recently served as the Executive Director of the Keizer Chamber of Commerce. She co-owns Bethell Plumbing and currently serves as vice-chair on the Salem-Keizer Public Schools Board of Directors.

Commissioner Bethell's policy interests include children and youth issues, housing, and economic development.

Prior governmental experience includes Marion County Fire District #1, Oregon Public Utility Commission, and Oregon Disabilities Commission. She currently serves on the Career and Technical Education Center (CTEC) Advisory Task Force and is a Rotarian.

Commissioner Bethell is a graduate of Oregon State University. She and her husband Nathan live in Keizer with their three children.