Commitment

I will put the we back into government through collaborative decision-making.

I pledge to protect our farmland and promote the selling of Marion County produce in our markets.

Tough on Crime

Marion County is rated as the fastest growing area in Oregon for violent crime. We must adopt a preventative strategy. One that embraces our diversity, promotes mentorship programs for our youth, and gives our children the extra curricular activities that create opportunities and keeps them safe. Education is critical to reducing crime, as are good paying jobs. The more resources we put into our children the less we spend on our jails.

Diversifying The Economy

Education is key!

Marion County needs to adopt a portfolio approach to our economy. We must attract new industries and businesses to our community that are diversified, provide family wage jobs and benefits. Important components to this strategy: - a good infrastructure - an educated workforce so we can compete locally, nationally and globally — and a clean and healthy environment which affects our quality of life and attracts and retains talented people who drive our economy.

Colleagues speak out for Cornejo

Michael Parker, Salem/Keizer School Board Member “Mary Lou Cornejo will build bridges where we need them.”

John Gest, Stayton Chamber of Commerce, Director of Economic Development: As a business owner I know our community will benefit from Mary Lou Cornejo's vision and priorities for a diversified economy and educated workforce.

Bill Burgess... Gets Results for Us All

Dear Marion County Voters,

I am running to protect our quality of life in Marion County by promoting public safety and controlling urban sprawl.

Results! While serving on the Salem City Council I made sure we:

- Strengthened our police force by 30 and firefighter paramedics by 15.
- Improved emergency response times significantly.
- Protected our excellent drinking water from pollution and shortage.
- Made it safer for children to get to and from school with street and sidewalk improvements and flashing caution lights around schools throughout Salem.

My Top Priorities for Marion County:

- Promote prevention and early intervention to reduce crime and suffering.
- Increase deputy patrols.
- Protect our farmlands, forest lands and watersheds.
- Work cooperatively, both within the commission, and with others to prioritize and provide public services effectively, efficiently and responsibly.

As a husband, father, pharmacist and former elected official, I know that protecting our community's health requires hard work, persistence, and a true spirit of cooperation. I would be honored by your vote to allow me to work for you on the Marion County Commission.

Marion County Commissioner, Position 1

Patricia Milne

OCCUPATION: Marion County Commissioner

OCCUPATIONAL BACKGROUND: Small Business Owner

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND: Graduate, Mt. Lakes, High School, Claremont School

PRIOR GOVERNMENTAL EXPERIENCE: State Representative, 1993-1998, Majority Whip, 1995; Chair, Human Resources Committee, Task Force on Juvenile Court System and Juvenile Delinquency; Chair, Joint Interim Committee on Hispanic Affairs; Chair, House Education subcommittee, Ways and Means General Government subcommittee; Woodburn School Board, vice-chair, 1992, School District Strategic Planning Committee; Marion County Educational Service District Budget Committee.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Woodburn Chamber of Commerce; Blanchet School Board; St. Joseph's Shelter Advisory Board; Willamette Valley Hospice Board.

Dear Friends,

When I first ran for the Marion County Board of Commissioners, I promised to work toward rebuilding the faith and credibility in county government, returning our government to its core functions, restoring employee moral, and regaining control of the county budget.

Since taking office more than three years ago, I have worked hard to keep those promises. I have been to every one of the 20 communities that make up our county, helping literally hundreds of people who have had problems with Marion County government. I have worked hard to build relationships not only with elected officials, but also with county employees who are the backbone of Marion County. And, yes, I have made the hard votes when I've had to, standing up for the principles we share.

I have worked with farmers to ensure they can continue to work their land. I have worked with businesses on vital economic stimulus issues. I have worked with law enforcement to keep our communities safe. And, I have worked with state transportation officials to improve our roads.

There is more to do, however, and I am asking for your vote so I can return to the Board of Commissioners to continue working with you and for you.

Thank you for your continued support. You can always trust me to work hard to put your interests first.

Sincerely,

Patti Milne

Jim is a consensus builder. He takes the time to know those he works with so he can bring divergent needs together. Jim prides himself on bringing opposing sides to the table and getting them to agreement, while at the same time achieving results as quickly and fairly as possible. To prepare for serving as Commissioner, Jim has spent a good deal of time getting to know the Commissioners so that he can work with them more closely and productively.

As a small business owner, Jim understands community. Active in his neighborhood association, church and various community groups, Jim understands that it is the people in our neighborhoods, who working together accomplish great results. As an elected official, he listened closely to community concerns and found that they often provided useful insights in addressing issues that came before him.

Jim has been a strong proponent of effective, community based law enforcement. His background and extensive training in law enforcement has shown him the importance of protecting citizens from crime while at the same time involving citizens in preventing crime. Marion County. It is time the Government is returned to the people, for the people and not for the self serving Politicians who are trying to be politically correct. We need Patriotic Americans back in Government whose first priority is the people.

William Smaldone

OCCUPATION: Professor of History, Willamette University (1991-present)

OCCUPATIONAL BACKGROUND: Visiting Professor, Ramapo College, New Jersey (1989-1991).

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND: B.S., M.A., Ph.D., State University of New York

PRIOR GOVERNMENTAL EXPERIENCE: Salem City Councilor (1999-present); Salem City Council President (2001-present); Budget Committee (1999-present); Youth Compact (1999-present); Mid-Willamette Council of Governments (1999-present); Youth Commission (1999-2000); Salem Joint Transportation System Advisory Subcommittee (1999-present); Revenue Task Force (1998-present)

Although the local newspaper tries hard to convince people otherwise, a lot of good things are happening in Salem's City government.

There's more consensus within the City Council than there has been in decades. Council votes are usually 7-2, 8-1, or unanimous. People like it. Since this Council took office, the number of citizens applying for city boards and commissions has quadrupled. The number of residents speaking at council meetings is rising steadily, month after month.

Bill Smaldone, Mayor Swaim, and the council majority care about the needs of all of Salem's residents.

We support:

Locally-owned businesses, which hire Salem residents and keep profits in the community

Revitalizing downtown (this council began this effort and brought it to public attention)

Full library services

Environmental protection (this council created Salem's Environmental Commission)

Living wages to support working families

Sidewalk installation and repair

Well-maintained parks

Increased police and fire protection

The big issue in Salem these days is whether citizens' tax dollars will go into developers' pockets to fund sprawl, or be invested in Salem's existing neighborhoods.

The newspaper supports the land speculators and developers who are its biggest advertisers, and attacks those like the mayor and the council majority, who support the neighborhoods. Don't let them fool you.

Bill Smaldone and the council majority side with the neighborhoods. We believe city government should provide residents an array of quality services, with the costs distributed equitably.

To protect and enhance the quality of life for all Salem's residents,

Reelect Bill Smaldone to City Council

OCCUPATION: Self employed marketing consultant; Development Director, Salem's Historic Elsinore Theatre

OCCUPATIONAL BACKGROUND: Salem Hospital, Director of Marketing and Community Relations

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND: Attended McKinley Grade School, graduated from North Salem High School and earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Southern Oregon University.

PRIOR GOVERNMENTAL EXPERIENCE: Appointed to the Marion County Health Advisory Board and the Policy Board of the Child Health Initiative.

Our city is at a crossroads.

There are many opportunities for Salem. But we have serious problems that can no longer be ignored or glossed over with new taxes:

- Increased loss of jobs
- Shrinking city revenues
- Millions needed for neighborhood repairs
- Revival of our historic downtown
- Retirement funds at risk
- Rising home break-in rate
- Increased number of homeless families
- Mismanaged city budgets

To address these problems requires the combined efforts of all parties. City Council meetings continue to be an ideological battlefield. Any citizen who dares to disagree runs the risk of verbal assault. And we the taxpayers lose the opportunity to make our city work.

I've watched one faction or another take control of the city and muscle through its own agenda. Any success came at the cost of a divided community and loss of any chance for voter approval. Promoting special interest agendas is not the purpose of city government.

We have a great pool of talent in Salem, but the current City Council fails to use that talent. We need individuals willing to explore a range of opportunities for our neighborhoods and downtown. We need to get everyone involved ...from risk-takers to neighbors ...to craft solutions that all parties can support.

The next four years are critical to Salem's future. To make Salem work, we need leaders willing to work with all sides to secure community-wide support.

With your vote, that's the agenda I will bring to the City Council

Councilor Bennett's accomplishments:

AVAILABLE: Wes Bennett promised to be a full-time councilor. He's kept that promise. He's available to any citizen, eight hours a day, six days a week. His home telephone number is on his council business cards, and listed in the city directory.

NEIGHBORHOOD PROTECTION: When inappropriate development proposals threatened the character and property values of three south Salem neighborhoods, Wes Bennett rallied the citizens, led the fight and stopped those projects, changing them to projects more acceptable to the neighborhoods.

TOBACCO ORDINANCE: Wes Bennett introduced and had passed a tobacco ordinance to prevent minors from purchasing tobacco products.

LAND FOR PARKS: Wes Bennett worked with city staff to get land set aside for parks in Sunnyside, Wiltsey, Pringle, Hilfiker & Battlecreek neighborhoods. Those proposals were adopted by the council.

Personal: Single. Moved to Salem in 1999, becoming a homeowner in the NESCA neighborhood of Ward 6. My brother and I share in assisting our mother, who is disabled due to blindness; we live in separate residences at the same address.

Based on my experiences and observations of NESCA, SNI, SCAMP, City Council and Staff and many of our community's volunteer groups, I believe:

A Councilor's chief duty is to represent the views and interests of the citizens of his ward.

Recent changes in national and local economies, in local governing and educational leadership and in the makeup and spirit of the local populace both allow and require fresh thought and diligent, cooperative action on all sides.

Citizens are becoming ever more aware of the needs for campaign financing reform, stronger support for local business, and new, integrated approaches to transportation problems. Salem is a special place — keeping Salem special for our sake, the future of our children and as a model to other cities demands from each of us the best we can give.

Measures

Measure 24-77 : City of Stayton- 3 yr local option tax

Referred to the People by the City Council

Three Year Local Option Tax for Library, Pool, Parks Support

Question: Shall the City of Stayton implement a $236,300 operating tax annually for three years, beginning in Fiscal Year 2002-2003?

This measure may cause property taxes to increase more than three percent.

Summary: This measure may be passed only at an election with at least a 50 percent voter turnout.

The City of Stayton is seeking a three-year local option tax of $236,300 per year, beginning in Fiscal Year 2002-2003, to partially fund specific elements of the library, swimming pool and park programs.

A portion of the proposed tax will offset the loss of the previous 3-year library/pool local option tax passed in 1998. An allowance is also made for delinquent and uncollectible taxes. This tax would raise $708,900 over the three year period.

Library support will include reinstating or increasing audio-visual, reference material and book budgets to former levels, replacing obsolete computers, deferred building maintenance and offsetting anticipated loss of regional library reimbursements.

Pool support will include offsetting increased utility costs, reinstating operating hours and, over three years, constructing a new boiler room, chlorination system replacement, refurbishing shower rooms and miscellaneous equipment repairs.

Parks program support will include replacement of playground equipment in Westown, North Slope and Community Center Parks (one each year).

It is estimated that this tax will result in a rate of $.684 per $1,000 of assessed value in the first year. The estimated tax cost for this measure is an ESTIMATE ONLY based on the best information available from the county assessor at the time of estimate.

Explanatory Statement

The City of Stayton is seeking a 3-year local option tax of $236,300 per year for partial support of the City's library, pool and parks programs. A portion of the tax will offset the loss of an existing library/pool local option tax that expires at the end of the current fiscal year (June 2002). Some of the proposed tax will be used for capital improvements that could not otherwise be afforded within the City's regular budget. A specific list of the proposed uses of local option tax proceeds is as follows:

Stayton Public Library:		Year 1	Year 2	Year 3
Replace funds from expiring 1998 Local Option Tax	$56,000	√	√	√
Replace anticipated loss of Regional Library Service funds	$8,000	√	√	√
Increase book budget	$10,000	√	√	√
Reinstate audio-visual and reference materials budget	$10,000	√	√	√
Replace computers which access Chemeketa Regional Library Service	$8,000	√
Replace public use computers	$8,000		√
Deferred library building maintenance needs	$8,000			√
Stayton Family Memorial Pool:
Replace funds from expiring 1998 Local Option Tax	$38,000	√	√	√
Reinstate weekend/other hours that existed prior to 9/2000	$22,000	√	√	√
Offset increased cost of natural gas and electricity	$12,000	√	√	√

Construct new boiler room	$30,000	√
Replace chlorination system	$22,000		√
Miscellaneous equipment upgrades and repairs	$8,000		√
Re-plumb and refurbish shower rooms	$30,000			√
Stayton City Park System
Replace playground equipment (Westown Park)	$28,200	√
Replace playground equipment (North Slope Park)	$28,200		√
Replace playground equipment (Community Center Park)	$28,200			√
Other:
Necessary allowance for delinquent and uncollectible taxes	$14,100	√	√	√
TOTAL ANNUAL TAX:		$236,300	$236,300	$236,300

Based on the most current information available from the Marion County Assessor's office, the proposed tax would represent a tax rate of sixty-eight cents ($.684) per $1,000 of real property assessed value (not market value). For example, estimated first year cost for a home assessed at $100,000 would be approximately $68.40. Because the previous local option tax passed in 1998 will cease, and will not overlap the proposed new local option tax, the estimated additional tax cost (from the tax bill now being paid), using the same example, will be approximately $39.50 per year.

LIBRARY AND POOL FUNDING ENDS JUNE 30 TH

The current three-year levy to help support Library and Pool operations will expire soon. Stayton citizens, recognizing these great community assets could not be funded entirely by the general fund, and are too important to lose, passed the initial option tax levy in 1998. A renewal levy must be passed, replacing the expiring levy, to continue the basic level of Library and Pool services.

VOTE YES ON MEASURE 24-77

Measure 24-77 is the new Option Tax Levy needed to continue Library and Pool services. This measure also has the added benefit of providing a minimal amount of much needed funds to replace worn out play equipment in Northslope, Westown, and the Community Center parks.

Once again, the Library, Parks and Pool local option tax measure is before you for a vote. And, once again, we are counting on your support! Voters supported the levy in the last election, but not enough people voted. Please support it again! Please vote, and vote "Yes"!!

This measure replaces an expiring three year levy of $100,000 per year with a new three year levy of $236,300 per year that will help support the Library and Pool and also add needed equipment to some of our existing parks. So much potential good, yet for most of us it shouldn't cost more in additional taxes than the value of renting a video each month (about $40 per year).

We need to replace outdated computer technology in the Library, restore hours open to the public and purchase new books and periodicals. Many maintenance projects have been put on hold due to a chronic finding shortage, which the passage of this levy will help overcome.

The Pool needs upgrades to its chlorination system, boiler room and showers that will make the Pool run more efficiently and safely. Our Pool is used by citizens young and old throughout the day and we have championship swimmers who are counting on us to keep the pool open with our vote on this important levy!!

We have a Parks system that we can be proud of and keeping our parks safe for children to play in is an important part of that system. The Parks portion of the levy does that, with new play equipment in three of our different neighborhood parks.

When we look at the livability of a community like ours the things that make us want to be here good libraries, beautiful parks and functional swimming pools for our children and ourselves ought to be among our highest priorities!

Please vote "Yes" on Measure 24-77

Measure 24-78 : City of Salem- City Charter Amendment

Referred to the People by the Salem City Council

Amends Charter: Prohibits Public Official's Participation In Decisions Requiring Disclosure

Question: Shall charter be amended to require disclosures and prohibit public officials from participating in decisions at public hearings, with exceptions?

Summary: Provides that elected or appointed city officials and participants in decision-making process must disclose at public hearings relationships, gifts and contributions when a decision is likely to result in a financial benefit to a person or entity. When such disclosures are required, and matters disclosed create appearance of bias or impropriety, officials cannot participate as decision-makers in decisions made at public hearings, unless absolutely necessary to render effective decision, or all persons participating in proceeding waive objection to participation. Disclosures include past or present business or family relationships with, or direct or indirect campaign contributions or gifts totaling at least $501 during preceding two years for Mayor and four years for other officials from, persons or entities or their representatives participating in decision-making process. Decision-makers shall participate or abstain as necessary to achieve purpose of public confidence in high ethical standards when a reasonable person would conclude that campaign contributions were made or disclosed, or waivers granted or withheld to manipulate composition of voting members of decision-making body. Violation would prejudice parties' substantial rights.

Explanatory Statement

The measure would add a section to the city charter concerning family or business relationships with, or campaign contributions or gifts to, elected or appointed city officials who participate in decisions made at public hearings. If such a decision would be likely to result in a financial benefit to any person or entity, the official would be required to disclose at the beginning of the hearing:

1. Any business relationships in the last four years, or family relationships, with persons or entities, or their representatives, who participate in the decision-making process.
2. Any direct or indirect campaign contributions or gifts that:
 - a. Are from persons or entities, or their representatives, who participate in the decision-making process; and
 - b. Total $501 or more during the preceding two years, for the mayor, or four years, for other officials; and
 - c. Are known or should have been known to the official.

All persons and entities participating in the decision-making process would be required to disclose such matters.

An official required to make such disclosure could not participate in the decision if the matters required to be disclosed would create the appearance of bias or impropriety in the mind of a reasonable person. However, if the official's action were absolutely necessary to render an effective decision, the official would be required to participate after disclosure. In addition, unless participation were prohibited by state statutes on Government Standards and Practices or the city code on ethics, the official could participate if all persons participating in the proceeding waived objection.

When a reasonable person would conclude that campaign contributions were made or disclosed or waivers were granted or withheld to manipulate the composition of the voting members of a decision-making body, the decision-makers would be required to participate or abstain from participation as necessary to achieve the purpose of public confidence in high ethical standards for government officials.

If a reviewing court, agency, board or commission determined that a decision violated the measure's requirements, the reviewing body should rule that the parties' substantial rights are prejudiced.

"Family relationship" would mean the relationship between an official and the official's spouse, son, daughter, mother, father, brother, brother-in-law, sister, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, cousin, stepparent, stepchild, grandparent or grandchild.

"Representative" would mean a person who represents a person or entity, who or which participates in the decision-making process, including, but not limited to, an attorney, planning consultant, expert witness, or employee.

"Business relationship" would include employer, employee, partnerships, contractor, lessor, lessee, current and prospective parties to contracts and professional representation or acting as another's agent or any other business relationship which a reasonable person would conclude raises ethical concerns under the measure.

"Gift" would be defined as in ORS 244.020(8), excluding the exceptions in that statute. "Gift" would not include voluntary work not required to be reported under laws on contributions and expenditure reports.

1000 Friends Of Oregon Urges You To

VOTE YES ON MEASURE 24-78

Support Government Ethics for Salem! Campaign contributions in exchange for future favors are eating away at our democracy. Current campaign disclosure laws are inadequate and fail to protect us from the corrosive effect of big money in local decisions.

Measure 24-78 would limit the influence of big money in politics. Current law allows city officials to accept thousands of dollars from developers and other business interests and then vote on their proposals to the city. Developers spent over $30,000 in an effort to buy a single city race in the last election cycle. You'd better believe they expected a return on their investment. Vote YES to prevent this abuse!

Measure 24-78 would better inform the public and shine a light on questionable relationships. City officials should be required to disclose all conflicts of interest before voting on public business. Vote YES to require full disclosure. The people of Salem have a right to know!

Measure 24-78 would increase trust in government. From 1964 to 1994, the number of people who said they believed "Government is run by a few big interests looking out for themselves" increased from 29% to 76%. The number who believed "Public officials don't care what people like me think" shot up from 37% to 69%. Vote YES to return integrity to government!

By limiting the ability of city officials to take actions benefiting their large donors, measure 24-78 would discourage wealthy interests from trying to buy local elections through campaign contributions.

THE WELL-FUNDED OPPONENTS OF REFORM WILL ALWAYS FIND EXCUSES NOT TO ACT. THE TIME FOR MEANINGFUL REFORM IS NOW.

VOTE YES ON MEASURE 24-78!

SUPPORTS GOOD GOVERNMENT

VOTE YES ON MEASURE 24-78

It is time to take back our government from the special interests.

Measure 24-78 establishes critical ethical standards for Salem officials and requires them to disclose large campaign contributions and conflicts of interest before voting.

Everyone knows money in politics is a serious problem.

On October 10, 1994, the Statesman Journal called for “relief from the power of groups and individuals who buy an office for their favorite candidate by feeding him or her the money needed to buy advertising and expertise.”

“Even the most dedicated and conscientious politicians will have trouble showing their independence . . . when they know who their financial sugar-daddies are,” continued the Statesman Journal.

Nearly eight years later, little has changed.

Nationally, the Enron scandal highlights the golden rule of politics: whoever has the gold sets the rules. Around Oregon, public officials make decisions benefitting their relatives or business associates. Locally, development interests spent more than $50,000 trying to influence the outcome of a single Salem city race in the 2000 election—$30,000 from one homebuilders PAC.

Our current laws lack the teeth to prevent these abuses, feeding public cynicism about the integrity of public decisions.

Now we finally have a chance to make a difference.

Measure 24-78 gives voters the opportunity to enact genuine reform.

By requiring city officials to step aside if business or family relationships or large contributions create the appearance of impropriety, Measure 24-78 will ensure that decisions are fair and in the public interest.

And if it discourages developers—or development opponents—from trying to buy local elections, so much the better.

PROTECT OUR CITY FROM BIG MONEY INTERESTS!

Vote Yes on Measure 24-78!

Getting large sums of money for their campaigns gives some candidates a huge advantage over grass roots candidates. But when these well funded candidates become city councilors they are often asked to return the favor and make decisions that directly benefit their campaign contributors.

This is called “conflict of interest!”

THAT’S NOT HOW DEMOCRACY IS SUPPOSED TO WORK!

We've investigated and we know:

- There are constant and continuing efforts to CONCEAL BIG POLITICAL DONATIONS that come from development interests.
- HUGE CHECKS, some as large as $30,000 or even $45,000, have been written by development interests to fund campaigns for Salem mayor and council.
- Sometimes the money is shipped out of Salem and filtered back into local campaigns through other organizations.
- Developer donations have also been laundered through a local model home project into local elections.
- Sometimes developer candidates, or developer ballot measure campaigns, simply FAIL TO REPORT the full amount of developer dollars that they receive.
- The local newspaper FAILS TO PUBLISH even the full amount of those developer dollars that do get reported by the donors, or by their candidates.

Today developers don't have to declare their huge contributions when they seek council approval for their projects.

SALEM VOTERS DESERVE THE RIGHT TO KNOW when big campaign contributors are asking "their" councilors for a favor.

Measure 24-78 REQUIRES that potential conflicts of interest MUST BE DECLARED.

We need government by the people, not government by the money.

Argument Against 24-78

Campaign finance reform is a very important issue and we should take the time to pursue the issue correctly and legally.

Ballot measure 24-78 raises issues of free speech, added time and confusion at public meetings and other constitutional questions.

The measure was rushed through at a special meeting with little or no public input. In fact, it was done in such a rush that the City Councils own attorney said they did not have time to review and analyze the measure and that "this measure could be postponed to a later election date, rather than the May election."

That's not all the City Attorney had to say about this rushed and unwise measure. In a March 4th staff report to the City Council, she said:

"This will add to the time the process takes and may frustrate meeting mandatory time lines..."

"Application of the law can easily become unworkable."

(this) "raises questions of decision making authority."

"The scope of the decisions contemplated by the measures is not clear."

"Many of the terms used in the measure are undefined and ambiguous."

“this provision may be used to manipulate the decision making process...”

These comments are just some from a multi-page list of issues that the City Council ignored in the rush to get this measure out.

As past mayors, we are shocked and saddened to see such disregard for the City Attorneys thoughtful legal advice. The push to put this flawed measure in our City Charter is irresponsible and highly unwise.

Join with us in turning back this poorly thought out measure and give the public a chance to provide input.
