Some additional information has been collected, but very limited amounts (see handouts)

Today's discussion will focus on how are we going to learn about the community – what are the needs and hopes for this area and for the families (see them)? Once we know this, we will then be in a position to identify how we need to adjust our efforts to reach the desired outcome (S.A.M.)

Chris is going to lead us through an outward mindset activity that will help us flesh out what we know about this area.

Before we conclude today's meeting, we will should have ideas of next steps and have perhaps we will even be able to provide some direction for your subcommittee chairs (Paige and Sue) that are helping with FPAT and YRAT
