Testimony presented at land use hearings conducted by the Hearings Officer must be under oath. Witnesses giving oral testimony will be sworn in at the time testimony is given. Corporations, including governmental bodies that are the applicant must appear through an attorney (ORS 9.320). Licensed Oregon attorneys may make legal argument without being sworn, as long as facts on which the argument is based are supported by sworn oral testimony or written affidavit. After the close of the hearing the Hearings Officer may approve or deny the application, remand to the Planning Division, or approve a modified proposal. Failure to raise an issue, in person or by letter, or failure to provide sufficient specificity to afford the Hearings Officer an opportunity to respond to the issue precludes appeal to the Land Use Board of Appeals (LUBA) based on that issue. Notice to mortgagee, lienholder, vendor, or seller: ORS CHAPTER 215 requires that if you receive this notice, it must promptly be forwarded to the purchaser.

In order to accommodate persons with physical impairments, please notify the Planning Division of any accommodations you may need as far in advance of the hearing as possible.

LAND USE HEARINGS – FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Why did I receive this notice?

You received this public hearing notice because a property owner in your area filed a land use application that requires a hearing OR the decision of a land use application for property in your area has been appealed. State law requires that we provide notice of land use hearings to the applicant(s) and property owners within a certain distance of the subject property.

How to Participate

We encourage interested citizens to participate in the land use and hearing process. You may send comments in writing (hard copy or electronic mail) prior to the hearing. Written comments will be included in the record. Due to COVID-19, oral testimony may be given via telephone only. Pre-registration is required see “How to participate” for instructions.

What will happen at the public hearing?

Planning Division staff will present their report and recommendation. The hearings officer will then take testimony from the applicant, those in support, in opposition, and any general comments. The applicant will then be given an opportunity to present rebuttal. After all of the testimony, the hearings officer will close the hearing. However, anyone may request additional time to present more evidence, argument or testimony. The hearings officer will grant the request by continuing the hearing or leaving the written record open for at least seven days. Once the hearing and record is closed no further testimony or comments will be allowed, and the hearings officer will take the case under advisement. Please note that Marion County hearing rules prohibit the hearings officer from discussing a case with interested parties after the close of the hearing.

How long will the hearing take?

The hearings begin at 2:00 p.m. as indicated in the notice; however, more than one case may be scheduled be aware that the hearing may not begin until later if two cases are scheduled. Most hearings are completed within an hour.

When is a decision made?

Approximately 4-6 weeks after the public hearing and record is closed, depending on the complexity of the case, the hearings officer will issue a decision. She may approve or deny the case, may remand it to the Planning Division, or approve a modified proposal. For zone change applications she will issue a recommendation to the Board of Commissioners.

How will I be notified of the decision?

If you submitted comments or provided testimony during the public hearing and/or requested a copy of the decision one will be mailed to you. Please note the hearings officer’s decision can be appealed to the Marion County Board of Commissioners. Details of the appeal process are included in the decision or available from the Planning Division.
