 - Prison growth at an unsustainable level;
 - Address issues and manage safely in the community;
 - Initiated SB 416 pilot:
 - In conjunction with District Attorney's Office, courts, defense consortiums;
 - Target nonviolent drug and property offenders;
 - Provide pre-sentence assessment and intensive supervision; and
 - Five beds available at the jail for sanctions;
 - Family Sentencing Alternative Program:
 - Initiated in January 2016;

MARION COUNTY JUSTICE REINVESTMENT COUNCIL

- Five counties were designated for funding;
- Target is dual jurisdiction with Oregon Department of Human Services (population with children);
- Divert from prison sentence to a collaborative model of supervision and services; and
- Interrupt intergenerational cycle of criminality.
- Marion County previously had a high incarceration rate:
 - Have done a good job of decreasing the prison population;
 - Marion County has shown the most dramatic reduction:
 - Reduction in crime is not a factor for the reduced incarceration rate; and
 - Outcomes have improved.
- Sentencing options:
 - DUII diversion;
 - Deferred drug sentencing program:
 - Target population with addition issues;
 - Want to stop criminalizing addition;
 - New to the criminal justice system;
 - Potential felony level drug charges;
 - District Attorney discretion to file charges as misdemeanor and deferring sentence for participants;
 - Required to contact treatment agency;
 - Early show-proof date with court;
 - Required to meet with De Muniz Resource Center:
 - Assistance with signing up for Oregon Health Plan;
 - Services available to population.
 - Required community service;
 - Typically nine months check in;
 - Can dismiss sentence if participant completes 18 months bench probation;
 - Prevents felony charge and associated barriers:
 - Employment;
 - Driving privileges
- Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion (LEAD):
 - Constantly in contact with law enforcement;
 - Livability offenses;
 - More service resistant;
 - Addiction and or mental health issues;
 - Marion County Sheriff's Office and Salem Police Department participating;

MARION COUNTY JUSTICE REINVESTMENT COUNCIL

- Marion County has signed a resolution to be part of the initiative to divert mentally ill population from criminal justice system;
- Identified gaps through process mapping; and
- Will be pulling stakeholders together.
- Justice Reinvestment Council oversees all of the points in the criminal justice system including arrest through the end of post-prison supervision.

Bylaws

- Crafted by the Sheriff's Office and reviewed by legal counsel;
- Council will be looking for a vice chair;
- Need to keep victim services representative on the council;
- Recruiting some new members is still in process;
- May either be present or call in to be able to vote;
- Being a member of the Justice Reinvestment Council does not preclude receiving funding:
 - Need to follow conflict of interest guidelines;
 - Funding decisions not likely to happen in this council; and
 - Conflict would have to impact the person personally.
- Recommendation to change from "community member" to "business member"; and
- Michael Laharty made a motion to approve the bylaws:
 - The motion was seconded by Julie Huckestein; and
 - A voice vote was unanimous.

Minutes Approval

- Minutes from December 13, 2016 Marion County Reentry Council meeting were reviewed;
